Diwali Celebrations 2021-22

30th October 2021

The Department of Humanities had organized a small celebration post-lunch on October 30th 2021 in which the celebration started with training on Bollywood dance forms, which was taught by Bhavik Sarangsir. In celebration activity students learnt and enjoyed few hook steps on popular party songs.

In 2nd half of the celebration activity, department also organized two competitions:

1. Rangoli Making
2. Card Making

In these two competitions all the students have actively participated. It was quite surprising moment for the judge because same students had also participated in as beautiful rangoli design making competition, which was organized an hour before. Later on students also showed their creativity in card-marking competitions.
