

Uka Tarsadia University

Department of Humanities

Report on 'Expert lecture by Psychiatrist Dr. Urvish Jagania'

Date- 15th September 2023

Venue- FDP Room

Time- 11:00 am to 12:30 pm

Expert Speaker- Dr. Urvish Jagania

The Department of Humanities at Uka Tarsadia University, Bardoli organized an expert lecture by 'Dr. Urvish Jagania', a psychiatrist on 15th September 2023. Mr. Rahul Sambad gave an introduction of the esteemed guest. He touched on various topics such as why are humans called as social animals, importance of ethics in professions, the difference between sympathy and empathy, importance of empathy in profession, why empathy is more important than sympathy, transference and counter transference. He said "Ethics does not mean to do the right thing but to do not do the wrong thing."

He explained seven ethics in Professions and their importance: Competence, Beneficence, Maleficence, Fidelity, Autonomy, Informed consent, and Confidentiality. He also explained the 12 points of understanding if we are addicted. Some of these points are Craving, Spending time, Failure to stop it, being aware that it is causing problems but still doing it, doing it in hazardous places, tolerance development, withdrawal features and spending excess of money.

He answered various queries from students related to clinical psychology. Even the faculties of Psychology as well as Dr. Rozy Patel, director of the Department of Humanities, asked him queries concerning clinical psychology. Mr. Rahul Sambad, a faculty in Psychology extended a vote of thanks and appreciation letter to him. At last, all the students clicked group pictures with him.

