

Uka Tarsadia University

Department of Humanities

Report on ‘Teacher’s Day Celebration’

Date- 5th September 2023

Venue- Activity Room

Time- 9:00 am-3:30 pm

All the students of the Department of Humanities, Uka Tarsadia University organized the celebration of Teacher’s Day on 5th September 2023. All the male faculties were dressed in formals and the female faculties were dressed in elegant sarees. The event began with the recitation of the very famous Sanskrit ‘Guru Shloka’ by Mehek Patel, a first-year student of BA Psychology to set the tone for the celebration. Dr. Rozy Patel (Director) and all the faculty members of the Department of Humanities were graciously welcomed with Roses as a token of gratitude by the students. Mahek Jain, a first-year student of BA Psychology, gave a very powerful speech emphasizing the importance of celebrating Teacher’s Day and reminded us about the significant contribution of teachers in impacting our lives. Ms. Priya Sahani, a faculty in Journalism and Mass Communication also shared her valuable thoughts and experiences. Anjani, a first-year student of BA Psychology hosted the event. Afterward, all the students actively participated in crafting heartfelt greeting cards for teachers and gave them as a token of gratitude. Post lunch, Students organized a series of entertaining games adding a fun-filled dimension to the celebration. The first game was Housie, a group game of luck and chance. The second game was Blindfolded drawing in which players were blindfolded and attempted to explain a given word through drawing on a whiteboard. The third game was the Mimicry challenge where players picked chits with names of faculties and students, mimicking the person while others guessed their identity. The event was a resounding success, filled with joy.

Glimpse

