

Uka Tarsadia University

Department of Humanities

Report on the Workshop on 'Mannerism'

Date- 9th March 2024

Time- 9:00 -3:30 pm

Venue- Shrimad Hall

Total no of Participants- 75

Expert Speaker- Anjali Kumari

The Department of Humanities conducted a workshop on the topic 'Mannerism' on March 9, 2024, at the Shrimad Hall. The expert of the session was Ms Anjali Kumari. The event witnessed active participation from 75 students. The workshop aimed to explore various aspects of manners and their significance in personal, professional, and digital spheres.

The participants gained insights about fundamental concepts of manners and their role in enhancing social interactions. They also gained insights into effective communication practices, including active listening, body language, verbal cues, email etiquette and netiquettes. They also learned strategies for resolving conflicts.

To reinforce engagement, the workshop incorporated role-plays, skits, and fun games centered around demonstrating mannerism in various scenarios. The participants gained a deeper understanding of the significance of manners in diverse aspects of life and practical strategies to incorporate mannerism into their daily interactions.

Glimpse of the Event

