

Director of Chemistry Department, Prof. Kishor. R. Desai had been honored with Life Time Achievement Award by Indian Council of Chemist (ICC) - Agra

A Life Time Achievement Award (2013) had been awarded to Prof. Kishor. R. Desai by The Indian Council of Chemist (ICC)-Agra for his lasting contribution to chemical research. This award was presented by president of ICC, Ex-Vice Chancellor of Agra University Prof. Girish Saxena, Vice-Chancellor of Karnataka University Prof. H. B. Walekar, Vice-Chancellor of Shimog University Prof. S. P. Heramath, Director of Indian Institute of Science, Bangalore Dr. S. Chandrashekhar.

Prof. Desai ranks eminent scientist in the field of Dyes, Pharmaceuticals and Green Chemistry. Spanning a period of over forty years, Prof. Desai's professional career is replete with milestone that includes his distinctive contribution in covering new grounds in the area stated above.

Prof. Desai has, to his credit, an enviable track record of 350 research papers published in reputed national and international journals besides six acclaimed books on Green Chemistry, Microwave reactions and Industrial Plant Processes. He has successfully guided 80 Ph.D and 40 M.Phil scholars and has been the major contributor in the domain of high quality research in various government projects. Under UGC teacher exchange programme he was deputed University of Moscow, University of Leningard, University of Kiev, University of Ukraine etc. He also participated in academic programmes and conferences and delivered many invited talks at East Germany, Bangkok, Singapore, Doha-Quatar, Kuwait, China, Mauritius and other cities of the world.

