An expert session on “Aspirations and goal setting” was organized by SRIMCA-MBA for FYMBA students as a part of orientation program. The session was conducted by Mr. Kishan Patel, Career counselor and trainer on reasons for making MBA as a career choice and how to make changes in habits and behavior related to the same. The highlight of the session was to focus on ‘Why’ rather ‘What’. Students were encouraged to speak up about their past academic experiences relating it with their present aspirations and goals. The session concluded with sharing of learning throughout the session including the difference between context and content, method and result and habits to be inculcated for better performance throughout the course.
