पढेगा India तो बढेगा India

Random Acts of Kindness Club at B. V. Patel Institute started its activity in the current academic year by distributing more than 1000 note books, pencils, sharpeners and erasers to the students of municipal schools in the neighborhood of Maliba Campus. Students of Kanai, Tarsadi, Patharon, Jod, Atiya Faliya Municipal Schools benefitted from this activity.

All the students of BBA and BCom contributed in this charity by donating one notebook each, which they purchased from their pocket money. Also the faculty members and the Director contributed whole heartedly in this endeavor. On the one hand this act is beneficial to the marginalized section of the society and on the other it instills the feeling of social responsibility among the youngsters studying at the nstitute.
