Celebration of International Friendship Day

Students of B.V. Patel Institute of Business Management celebrated the advent International Friendship Day with great zeal and enthusiasm. Various competitions were organised to salute the spirit of friendship. There was card making competition in which student's prepared handmade cards for their friends. They shared their views on friendship through elocution competition.

31 students participated in elocution competition. The participants impressed the judges and the audience with their confidence, expression and talent; and made the event really memorable. Many of them shared poems and shayris on friendship. Few of them quoted the example of lord Krishna and Sudama.

In card making competition 137 students participated. Participants expressed thoughts on friendship which increased the value of their cards. After the competition all cards were exhibited on notice board. Viewers were happy to see cards prepared by their friends.
