

BV Patel Institute of Commerce

Uka Tarsadia University

Expert Session on “Exchange Rate”

19th March 2024

The institute organized an expert session on “Exchange Rate” for final year students of Commerce. The objective of the session was to equipped students with the different forex market and its. Dr. Vivek Ayre, Faculty of BVPIM was invited to take the session on the said topic. Dr. Vivek quoted different concepts of exchange rates in India.

The resource person covered exchange rate regimes, foreign exchange market, impact of exchange rate, fluctuations on domestic economy, and the changes in exchange rate. The session provided an insight on how the country manages its currency with respect to foreign currencies. Ms. Sanskruti Khengar, Integrated M.Com Student gave an overview of the session. Overall, the session was knowledgeable and very helpful for students for their overall development.

Organised by Dr. Arpana Patel, I/c Director, BVPIC