Event Objective:

Celebrating the Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav 78th Independence Day with the motive of Unity in Diversity

Event Description:

- The Independence Day is a spectacular celebration in our institution where total of 25 classes participated of BVPIC and BVPIM on the prior day of our Independence Day.
- The coordinator and class head managed the event by selecting the ‘State’ representative of the each class. The event planning was initiated prior for the arrangements and a group participation.
- The class was well decorated with the customized States and the emotions were nostalgic, the students researched and got an idea about cultural indepth so that they can replicate the State’s of India in a well-defined and organized way.
- The Judges were startled with the ideas with intellectual planning and implementing in a unique transformation of ideas.
- The Judges were confused to which state representative they should give certificate and recognition as there were highly tough competitions.
- Each generation have a special way to celebrate the Independence Day, but we have a common motive of Unity In Diversity the harmony and unity between people with different cultural, religious, or social backgrounds.
