The Voters' Day, celebrated annually on January 25th is a significant occasion to raise awareness about the importance of voting and promote electoral participation. On this occasion, the NSS Unit of Uka Tarsadia University organized a vibrant and informative event at the B.V. Patel Institute of Commerce. The celebration aimed to engage and educate students about their roles and responsibilities as voters in a democracy.

The primary objectives of the Voters' Day celebration were:

1. To raise awareness about the significance of voting and its role in shaping a democratic society.
2. To encourage students to register as voters and participate actively in the electoral process.
3. To provide information on the procedure of voter registration and the voting process.
4. To highlight the importance of informed voting and its impact on the nation's governance.

The event began with an inaugural speech by Dr. Arpana Patel, I/c Director, B.V. Patel Institute of Commerce. The Director emphasized the role of youth in building a strong democratic nation and the importance of exercising their right to vote.

A pledge-taking ceremony followed, where all the students present solemnly pledged to exercise their right to vote and encourage others to do the same. The pledge emphasized the values of democracy, integrity, and civic responsibility.

The students of B.V. Patel Institute of Commerce took a solemn voter pledge under the guidance of Dr. Arpita Vyas. The pledge emphasized the importance of voting as a fundamental right and a civic duty. Dr. Vyas led the students in affirming their commitment to vote responsibly in future elections, contribute to the democratic process, and encourage others to exercise their voting rights.

The NSS Unit of UkaTarsadia University extends its gratitude to all the speakers, participants, and volunteers who made this event a success. Special thanks to Dr. Arpana Patel, the Principal of B.V. Patel Institute of Commerce, and all the faculty members for their support and encouragement. We also appreciate the active participation of the students who made the event memorable and impactful.
