Event Description: -

On 20th November, 2024, a session on ‘Improving Spoken English Skills’ was conducted for students of first year B.Com. Dr. Nipam Chauhan was the speaker for the session, which was aimed at enhancing students' spoken English proficiency. The session began with a welcome speech by Snehal Vagh, who introduced the speaker.

Dr. Chauhan covered a range of essential aspects, including an introduction to English, the need to learn and speak English, and the role of speech organs in pronunciation. He also addressed common mispronunciations and highlighted the differences between long and short pronunciations in English. The session included interactive activities where students practiced spoken words to improve their language skills.

At the end of the session, students shared their reviews, expressing how valuable and informative the session was. The session concluded with a thank-you speech by Snehal Vagh, followed by a token of appreciation presented to Dr. Chauhan by Dr. Arpana Patel, symbolizing the gratitude of both the students and faculty.
