Date: January 24, 2025

Coordinator: Dr. Arpita Vyas

Participants: Students Commerce

No. of students: 105: Male: 48; Female: 57

National Voters Day was celebrated with great enthusiasm and participation at B.V. Patel Institute of Commerce, Uka Tarsadia University, under the National Service Scheme (NSS) banner. The event aimed to raise awareness about the importance of voting and the electoral process, which showed active involvement from the students of B.Com and M.Com courses.

The celebration was coordinated by Dr. Arpita Vyas, the NSS Coordinator, who played a pivotal role in organizing the event. The day commenced with a welcome address, highlighting the significance of National Voters Day, which is observed yearly to mark the foundation of the Election Commission of India and encourage young citizens to become active voters.

The students were made aware of their civic responsibilities and the importance of casting their votes in the democratic process. Various informative sessions were held, during which students learned about the voter registration process, the electoral procedure, and the significance of voting as a tool for social change.

A pledge was taken by the students, where they vowed to cast their votes responsibly in future elections and to encourage others to do the same. The event concluded with the NSS team expressing gratitude to all participants and reminding them of their role in strengthening democracy.

The National Voters Day celebration at B.V. Patel Institute of Commerce successfully instilled a sense of civic responsibility among the students, encouraging them to become proactive and informed voters in the future.

Event Outcomes:

The National Voters Day celebration at B.V. Patel Institute of Commerce successfully met several key objectives and outcomes, contributing to the overall awareness and engagement of students. The event emphasized the ethical responsibility of voting and the importance of making informed choices in elections. Students were encouraged to act as responsible citizens, reflecting on the broader implications of their voting decisions on society and governance.
