

FDP on “Student Innovation and Start-ups”

Dr Paresh N Patel attended a state level faculty development program

17th Dec. To 21st Dec. 2018

As a representative of UTU, Dr Paresh N Patel has attended state level faculty development program organised by Entrepreneurship Development Institute of India (EDII), Ahmedabad in association with SSIP Government of Gujarat and GKS. The main objectives of this FDP were to train the faculties from various universities across the state, about implementation of Student Start-up and to motivate students to actively involve in SSIP, guide them to prepare proposal for their idea, etc. During the inaugural ceremony, three honourable IAS officers and director of EDII were there. Honourable IAS officer Madam Anju Sharma briefed all the participants about the importance of SSIP in the current scenario. Honourable IAS officer Madam Avantika Singh spoke about the Vision, Mission and Objectives of the SSIP and this particular FDP.

Various experts across the country were there to deliver their talk relevant to the program. There were many things to know about the implementation of SSIP at all university of the state. They presented various case studies about the start-up and how it can affect the economy of the nation. The major topics of the program were innovation, start-up, incubation, agencies for financial support, IPR and few more. In order to have visual observation of incubation centre, they took us at incubation centre of PDU and GNLU. It was a good opportunity to visit these centres, which will help us to design the same at our campus. The kind of hospitality given by EDII with proper planning was appreciable. Finally, Dr Patel thanks, EDII for short listing him for this program and thanks to UTU for giving financial support to attain this wonderful program. Based on this program, sooner he will plan to organise one workshop about SSIP for our university students.
