

A Report on Blood Donation Camp

On July 24, 2025, the NSS Club of Uka Tarsadia University organized a Blood Donation Camp to mark the death anniversary of Naranji Bhakta, a revered spiritual soul known for his service and compassion. The camp commenced at 9:30 a.m. and witnessed wholehearted participation from different institutes of the University and also the final year B.Pharm students of Dr. Chunibhai Vallabhbhai Patel College of Pharmacy.

Under the guidance and coordination of the NSS Club, the event was well-organized with proper medical arrangements and support from trained healthcare professionals. Students came forward with great enthusiasm and selflessness to donate their blood, recognizing the importance of such humanitarian efforts.

The camp served not only as a tribute to a spiritual figure but also as an awareness drive promoting voluntary blood donation among the youth. It reinforced the message that small acts of kindness can make a significant difference in someone's life. Faculty members and NSS volunteers ensured smooth execution of the event, maintaining hygiene and safety protocols throughout.

The event concluded with appreciation for the donors and volunteers, acknowledging their contribution toward saving lives. Overall, the blood donation camp was a meaningful and impactful event, reflecting the spirit of service and social responsibility among students.

Glimpses of the day:

